INTRODUCTION

Education Code – 49826

Each county superintendent of schools in counties that operate community schools pursuant to Section 1980, in conjunction with superintendents of the school districts within the county, shall develop a plan for providing educational services to all expelled pupils in that county. The plan shall be adopted by the governing board of each school district within the county and by the County Board of Education.

The plan shall enumerate existing educational alternatives for expelled pupils, identify gaps in educational services to expelled pupils, and strategies for filling those service gaps. The plan shall also identify alternative placement for pupils who are expelled and placed in district Community Day School programs, but who fail to meet the terms and conditions of their rehabilitation plan or who pose a danger to other district pupils, as determined by the governing board.

Each county superintendent of schools, in conjunction with the superintendents of the local school districts, shall submit to the Superintendent of Public Instruction the county plan for providing educational services to all expelled pupils in the county no later than June 30, 2003, and shall submit a triennial update to the plan to the Superintendent of Public Instruction, including the outcome data pursuant to Section 48916.(1) on June 30th thereafter.

Education Code – 48916.(1)

At the time an expulsion of a pupil is ordered, the governing board of the school district shall ensure that an educational program is provided to the pupil who is subject to the expulsion order for the period of the expulsion, but only the extent funds are appropriated for this purpose in the annual Budget Act or other legislation, or both.

San Diego County Plan

Educational programs within San Diego County provide numerous opportunities for students who are in need of traditional and/or alternative educational programs. Individual school districts offer a broad spectrum of service and the San Diego County Office of Education offers additional options, this combination provides a continuum of alternatives to expelled students.

A student whose behavior has resulted in expulsion is given a rehabilitation plan that is designed by the district of residence. This plan may involve one or more of the options outlined in the 3-year plan [see matrices on Education Alternatives and Services for expelled students located in the yellow (pages 16-26) and green (pages 125-134) sections]. A student who is simply in the need of an educational alternative may also access these programs through a District and/or County referral process.

There were 4 major gaps that were identified in the 2003-2006, 2006-2009, and 2009-2012 Plan for Serving Expelled Students. During those time periods, several strategies were proposed and implemented to address these gaps. There was a fifth strategy added in the 2009-2012 Plan. These five gaps and the accompanying strategies are restated and or revised in the following pages 6 through 9 (tan colored section). Each gap and strategy is followed by a discussion of the implementation of the strategies outlined for filling those service gaps by responding to the questions:

1. a. Were the strategies successful? If not, what were the obstacles?
- b. What additional strategies were implemented? Were they successful?

The blue (pages 27 to 124) and green (pages 125-134) sections of this document provide an updated overview of the educational services that are available and strategies for improvement during the next three years.

Alternative placements for pupils who are expelled and placed in district community day school programs but who fail to meet the terms and conditions of their rehabilitation plan or who pose a danger to other district pupils, as determined by the governing board are outlined in the pink section (page 10).

Finally, following the alternative placement pink section (page 10) is the lavender section (page 11) that contains a discussion of the articulation and coordination between school districts and with the county office of education in providing educational placements for expelled pupils.

As with the 2006-2009 and 2009-2012 County Plan for Serving Expelled Students, the 2012-2015 County Plan is signed by local district superintendents and the county superintendent of schools. As per California Department of Education and interpretation of the California Education Code there is no requirement to have the document returned for board action.

SAN DIEGO COUNTY AND DISTRICT GAPS AND STRATEGIES IN EDUCATIONAL SERVICES TO EXPELLED STUDENTS

SAN DIEGO COUNTY AND DISTRICT GAPS AND STRATEGIES IN EDUCATIONAL SERVICES TO EXPELLED STUDENTS

There are four major gaps that were identified in respect to providing educational services to expelled pupils for 2003-2006. Following each gap is the County/District strategies for addressing these gaps.

The Gap

1. Students who have failed their placement in district Community Day Schools or do not have a Community Day School must be referred to other district programs or to a County operated Community School. If the student fails the program or commits another expulsion type offense, there may not be any viable alternative remaining.

County/District strategy for addressing this gap:

- A. The San Diego County Office of Education will continue to provide educational services to eligible students placed in or referred to the "Court and Community School" program. Students may be referred to other Juvenile Court and Community Schools (JCCS) within the region where independent study is offered as an option.
- B. Districts will continue to use existing educational strategies and programs to meet the needs of expelled students.
- C. As approved by each local board, designated staff will reassess the appropriateness of each student's rehabilitation plan and will revise as necessary.
- D. Districts with the support and assistance of the County Office of Education will continue to explore collaborative alternatives to address this gap.

Discussion

- a. Were the strategies successful? If not, what were the obstacles?
Yes, for the most part. However, there still are not enough regional offerings in certain areas of the county including rural and outlying areas. Since there is not a high need in these for expulsion placements even though inconvenient for the small number of students the current appears to be meeting the needs.
- b. What additional strategies were implemented? Were they successful?
No additional strategies were implemented in this area.

The Gap

2. Students in grades one through six who are expelled do not have the same educational options available as do expelled youth who are in grades seven through twelve, due to the limited numbers of students who are expelled in these lower grades. These younger students cannot attend programs designed for middle and high school students. The numbers are growing, but generally are not enough to develop an elementary school classroom or program.

County/District strategy for addressing this gap:

- A. The K-6 school districts will continue to offer available options, which may include the following:

Suspended expulsion with placement at the same school with the Other Means of Correction contract.

Suspended expulsion with placement at a different school within the same district with the Other Means of Correction contract.

Suspended expulsion with placement in a district operated opportunity school with the Other Means of Correction contract.

SDCOE will be offering limited options at one of the centrally located elementary community day schools.

Expulsion and placement in district-operated community day school where available.

Discussion

- a. Were the strategies successful? If not, what were the obstacles?

Yes, however will need to continue their efforts in ~~expanding~~ maintaining the numbers and kind of intervention strategies used with elementary students.

- b. What additional strategies were implemented? Were they successful?

Districts have increased the number and kind of intervention strategies to prevent elementary students from being expelled.

The Gap

3. A full continuum of services is not available at each of the 66 62 sites operated by the County Office of Education. Some of the JCCS regions have more services to offer than others.

County/District strategy for addressing this gap:

- A. Districts will continue to use existing educational strategies and programs to meet the needs of expelled students.

- B. The Juvenile Court and Community Schools will meet with each individual SELPA annually to discuss programs and options for Special Education students who have been expelled. In addition, school districts will understand their role in transitioning a student to the JCCS programs.

- C. Guidance teams have been developed and are in place in each JCCS region within the county to implement the support for personal, social, career and academic domains.

- D. Every existing JCCS program now has a counselor and a parent family liaison to facilitate the conditions of their rehabilitation plan and to provide a more comprehensive continuum of services.
- E. JCCS has also hired a full time transition technician to manage the transition to and from local school districts.

Discussion

- a. Were the strategies successful? If not, what were the obstacles?

Yes, however JCCS will expand their collaboration with local school districts through the individual SELPAs. Yes, however there is a growing number and range of students and a variety of needs of expelled students and therefore additional services such as counseling were needed to address the needs of students to assist them in meeting their rehabilitation plans. Additional services such as dropout prevention and outreach services are needed to support our highest risk of students to prevent them from dropping out during expulsion placements.

- b. What additional strategies were implemented? Were they successful?

~~Additional strategies were implemented, however, were not reflected in C-E of this section. In addition, Early Prevention Screening Diagnostic Teams (EPSDT) have been implemented by County Mental Health to assist in addressing counseling needs. Yes, however, more~~ Rural districts are not provided the full array of services offered in more urban school districts. Students do not have transportation to obtain the needed services required to rehabilitate them.

- c. There have been significant changes to the funding structure.
- d. Support provided: a design for future services is needed.

The Gap

- 4. Placements may not always be available for expelled students in the nearest community school.

County/District strategy for addressing this gap:

- A. Other options may be available in other Juvenile Court and Community Schools.
- B. Districts will continue to collaborate with the Juvenile Court and Community Schools administration to expedite the registration process.
- C. Juvenile Court and Community Schools administration will work with district personnel, parents and partner agencies, to develop interim options for students, when placements are not available in the nearest community.

- D. Juvenile Court and Community schools will make every effort to facilitate the opening of new programs in regions throughout the county. Local ordinances and building code regulations may cause delays, however.

Discussion

- a. Were the strategies successful? If not, what were the obstacles?

Yes, some of the strategies have been extremely successful in particular, the collaboration, and communication with districts, parents and partnering agencies. This has facilitated efficient placement and transition of enrolling students in alternative sites when necessary.

- b. What additional strategies were implemented? Were they successful?

No additional strategies were identified.

The Gap

5. There is currently no single depository for student records available between districts and JCCS.

County/District strategy for addressing this gap:

~~A countywide data warehouse should be developed and implemented with current automation of student records concerning discipline and expulsion. This would automate acquisition of student records and data to facilitate placement in interim settings, JCCS sites and reinstatement back into the referring school districts. *~~

Discussion

- a. Were the strategies successful? If not, what were the obstacles?

No, the strategy was not implemented and cannot be implemented due to budget constraints at this time.

- b. What additional strategies were implemented? Were they successful?

There were no additional strategies implemented.

 This gap has been deleted in 2012-2015 because of budget cuts that prohibit the development of a single depository for student records. The county has implemented such a system for foster and incarcerated youth where districts and county probation, through an MOU, have access to student records.

ALTERNATIVE PLACEMENT

(For those expelled students who have been placed in a district community day school but who fail to meet the term or conditions of their rehabilitation plan or who pose a continuing danger to the physical safety of district pupils or others)

Step I

The School District of residence continues to maintain responsibility for developing a rehabilitation plan for the student, referring the student to an appropriate educational setting, and ensuring that an educational program is provided either within or outside the school district.

Step II

Expelled students who fail to meet the terms and conditions of the district rehabilitation plan may be referred to a different district school, another district program, a district-operated Community Day School Program, or the San Diego County Office of Education Community School.

For expelled students who are referred to a San Diego County Office of Education Community School (which is a permissive program) an Individual Learning Plan will be developed with the students' parents and County Office of Education staff. Part of this plan will include a goal of returning to the school district of residence after the district expulsion term. If students are not successful in the County-operated program, they may be referred back to the district for possible review and re-placement.

The consistent regional articulation between districts and the San Diego County Office of Education has been occurring over the past eleven years. The County Office of Education provides bi-monthly Pupil Services administrators meetings for the 43 school districts including JCCS. The meeting is chaired by the Senior Director of Student Support Services of the County Office of Education and Director of Student Attendance, Safety & Well-Being. There is also representation from the administrative staff of the Juvenile Court and Community Schools (JCCS). These meetings provide opportunities for articulation and coordination between the county office and school districts on a bi-monthly basis. In addition, school districts can make contact with regionally identified JCCS staff for placements for expelled students.

San Diego County Office of Education Overview

The San Diego County Office of Education will continue to provide an educational option for expelled students. The Juvenile Court and Community Schools facilitate the students' completion of the rehabilitation plan, while responsibility for the long-term educational needs of the student remains with the referring district. This program is one that fits in the continuum of educational care as outlined. The philosophy of each individual school district affects how the San Diego County Office of Education Community School program will meet the needs of that particular school district. Some school districts use the San Diego County Office of Education program as an educational option for those students expelled under 49815.c, while others use these programs as placement alternative for other expelled students with one or both of the following findings: 1. "Other means of correction are not feasible or have repeatedly failed to bring about proper conduct" or 2. "Due to the nature of the act, the presence of the pupil causes a continuing danger to the physical safety of the pupil or others: (see 48915(b))."

The Community School is a permissive educational program that provides the local school districts with another educational option for their expelled youth.

The following pages outline the process for referral and referral forms that enable districts to access San Diego County Office of Education School programs.

District Responsibilities

Cajon Valley Union School District maintains responsibility for the following actions for students on a suspended expulsion or expulsion status:

1. Developing a Rehabilitation Plan with conditions
2. Referring the student to an appropriate educational setting
3. Ensuring that an educational program is provided either within or outside the District

Rehabilitation Plans

Cajon Valley Union School District is responsible for developing the Rehabilitation Plan for expelled students. The purpose of the plan is to put in place interventions to assist the student in making significant changes in behavior and/or attitude to support his/her successful return to the regular school program. The Governing Board must recommend the Plan of Rehabilitation for the student at the time of the expulsion order. The plan may include recommendations for improved academic performance, tutoring, special education assessments, counseling, community service, referrals to community agencies, and an assessment of the successful completion of conditions at the time of the review for readmission.

Expulsion Placements

Students on an expulsion status may be placed in Cajon Valley's Community Day School Program or referred to a San Diego County Summit School. Students referred to a Summit Program may receive an Individual Learning Plan to be developed with the student's parents and County Office of Education staff. Part of this plan may include a goal of returning to the school district of residence after the expulsion term. If students fail to complete the county-operated program, they are referred back to CVUSD district for possible review and replacement.

Readmission After Expulsion

When a student's period of expulsion is completed, the District conducts a review of the Rehabilitation Plan to determine if all Conditions have been met. A determination is also made as to whether the student continues to pose a danger to campus safety or other pupils or employees of the District. If the student has successfully met all conditions of the Rehabilitation Plan, this information is presented to the Governing Board at the Readmission Hearing. The Governing Board then proceeds with reinstatement to the regular school program.

Failure To Meet Rehabilitation Plan Conditions

If the student fails to meet the Rehabilitation Plan conditions, readmittance to the regular District program is denied. The Governing Board then takes action to determine continuing placement. This placement may be in the District's Community Day School Program or a San Diego County Summit School. Written notification is provided to the parent stating the reasons for denial of readmittance.

A matrix of specific District and San Diego County Office of Education programs and services available for expelled students is included in this plan.

JULIAN UNION HIGH SCHOOL DISTRICT (CONTINUED) District Existing Educational Alternatives for Expelled Youth

Step I

The School District of residence continues to maintain responsibility for developing a rehabilitation plan for the student, referring the student to an appropriate educational setting, and ensuring that an educational program is provided either within or outside the school district.

Step II

Expelled students who fail to meet the terms and conditions of the district rehabilitation plan may be referred to a district rehabilitation plan may be referred to a different district school, another district program, a district-operated Community Day School Program, or the San Diego County Office of Education Community School.

For expelled students who are referred to a San Diego County Office of Education Community School (which is a permissive program) an Individual Learning Plan will be developed with the students, parents and County Office of Education staff. Part of this plan will include a goal of returning to the school district of resident after the district expulsion term. If students fail the County-operated program, they are referred back to the district for possible review and re-placement.

There are three major gaps that exist in respect to providing educational services to expelled pupils. Following each gap is the County/District strategy for addressing these gaps.

1. Students who have failed their placement in district Community Day Schools or do not have a Community Day School must be referred to other district programs or to a county operated Community School. If the student fails the program or commits another expulsion type offense, there may not be any viable alternatives remaining.

County/District strategy for addressing this gap:

The San Diego County Office of Education will continue to provide educational services to those eligible students placed in or referred to the Court and Community School program.

Districts will continue to use existing educational strategies and programs to meet the needs of expelled students.

2. Students in grades one through six who are expelled do not have the same educational options available as do expelled youth who are in grades seven through twelve, due to the limited numbers of students who are expelled in these lower grades. These younger students cannot attend the programs designed for middle and high school students. The numbers are growing, but generally are not enough to develop an elementary school classroom or program.

County/District strategy for addressing this gap

The 9-12 school district will continue to offer available options which may include the following:

- A. Suspended expulsion with placement at the same school with another means of correction contract;

JULIAN UNION HIGH SCHOOL DISTRICT (CONTINUED) District Existing Educational Alternatives for Expelled Youth

- B. Suspended expulsion with placement at a different school within the same District with another means of correction contract;
 - C. Suspended expulsion with placement in a district operated Opportunity School with another means of correction contract;
 - D. When there are sufficient numbers of expelled K-6 students in an area, a regional county operated Community School (Summit School) may be developed.
 - parents must provide transportation
 - to be centrally located in the region
3. Special Education in the County Office of Education does not offer a full continuum of services in terms of placement options for K-12. The following gaps in Special Education Services currently exist:

County/District strategy for addressing this gap

- The San Diego County Office of Education will continue to provide educational services to those eligible students placed in or referred to the Court and Community School program.
- Districts will continue to use existing educational strategies and programs to meet the needs of expelled students.

The following pages contain individual district data concerning expulsions as required by Education Code 48916.1(e)(1)

(e)(1) Each school district shall maintain data as specified in this subdivision and report the data annually to the State Department of Education, commencing June 1, 1997, on forms provided by the State Department of Education. The school district shall maintain the following data:

1. The number of pupils recommended for expulsion.
2. The grounds for each recommended expulsion.
3. Whether the pupil was subsequently expelled.
4. Whether the expulsion order was suspended.
5. The type of referral made after expulsion.
6. The disposition of the pupil after the end of the period of expulsion.

When a school district does not report outcome data as required by this subdivision, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall not apportion any further money to the school district pursuant to Section 48664 until the school district is in compliance with the provisions of this subdivision. Before withholding the apportionment of funds to a school district pursuant to this subdivision, the Superintendent of Public Instruction shall give written notice to the governing board of the school district that the school district has failed to report the data required by paragraph (1) and that the school district has 30 calendar days from the date of the written notice of noncompliance to report the requested data and thereby avoid the withholding of the apportionment of funds.

School District Overview
Board Approval Date 6-5-03

Grades K-8

Ed Code section 48926 requires school districts, in conjunction with county superintendents, to develop a plan for expelled students. The following plan components are required by the Ed Code and are included in the district's plan.

- A statement or list of educational alternatives for expelled students that exist in the district and/or county.
- Identification of gaps in these educational service or programs.
- Strategies for fulfilling those gaps in educational services or programs.
- Alternative placement for those expelled students who have failed their rehabilitation plan.

Educational programs with San Diego County provide numerous opportunities for students who are in need of traditional and/or alternative education programs. While Lakeside union School District offers a broad spectrum of service and the County Office of Education offers additional options, the combination provides a continuum of alternatives to expelled students.

A student whose behavior has resulted in expulsion is given a rehabilitation plan that is designed by the Lakeside Union School District. This plan may involve one or more of the options outlined. A student who is simply in need of an educational alternative may also access these programs through a District and/or County referral process.

The Lakeside Union School District will continue to provide an educational option for expelled students. This program is one that fits in the continuum of educational care as outlined. The Lakeside Union School District may use the San Diego County of Education Community School program as an educational option for expelled students and students who need a placement alternative.

The Lakeside Union School District offers expelled students in grades 7-8, one or more of the following options, depending on the nature of the offense and the specific Education Code violation. Actual referral to such a placement is made by the Lakeside Union School District Governing Board, with recommendation from the Administrative Review Committee.

- 1) Suspended expulsion with placement on the same school campus with a behavior contract;
- 2) Suspended expulsion with placement on a different school campus within the district with a behavior contract;
- 3) Suspended expulsion with placement on an Independent Study Program, if the parent agrees;
- 4) Community service
- 5) Restitution

- 6) Expulsion with referral to the San Diego County Office of Education Court and Community School program. For students who are referred to this program (which is a permissive program), an individual Learning Plan will be developed with the students' parents and County Office of Education staff. Part of this plan will include a goal of returning to the school district of residence after the district expulsion term. If students fail the County-operated program, they are referred back to the district for possible review and re-placement.

If a student fails in their placement in a program or commits another expulsion type offense, the following strategies will be explored:

- 1) San Diego County Office of Education will continue to provide educational services to those eligible students placed or referred to the "Court and Community School" program.
- 2) Lakeside Union School District will continue to use existing educational strategies and programs to meet the needs of expelled students.
- 3) The governing board may reassess the appropriateness of the student's rehabilitation plan and revise it as necessary.
- 4) Lakeside Union School District will, with the support and assistance of the County Office of Education, continue to explore collaborative alternatives.

Students in grades one through six who are expelled do not have the same educational options available as do expelled youth who are in grades seven and eight, due to the limited numbers of students who are expelled in these lower grades. These younger students cannot attend the programs designed for middle school students. Since the numbers are almost non-existent, there are not enough students to develop an elementary school classroom or program.

The Lakeside Union School District offers expelled students in grades K-6 the following options, depending on the nature of the offense and the specific Education Code violation.

- A)
 - 1) Suspended expulsion with placement at the same school;
 - 2) Suspended expulsion with placement at a different school within the Lakeside Union School District;
 - 3) Suspended expulsion with placement at any of the alternatives noted above but with a behavior contract and/or mandated services required, such as,
 - a) after-school interventions
 - b) conflict mediation
 - c) community services
 - d) random drug searches
- B) When there are sufficient numbers of expelled K-6 students in an area, a regional county operated Community School (Summit School) may be developed in a centrally located region. Parents would be required to provide transportation.
- C) When there are sufficient numbers of expelled K-6 students in an area, a regional county operated Community School (Summit School) may be developed in a centrally located region. Parents would be required to provide transportation.

Lakeside Union School District, with the support and assistance of the County Office of Education, will continue to explore collaborative alternatives to address the needs of the students.

Lakeside Union School District will continue to maintain responsibility for developing a rehabilitation plan for a student who fails to meet the terms or conditions of their rehabilitation plan or who pose a danger to other district pupils. The district will refer the student to an appropriate educational setting, and ensure an educational program is provided either within or outside the school district.

Lakeside Union School District will collaborate with the Juvenile Court and Community Schools and the Special Education Local Plan Area (SELPA) to develop a comprehensive plan for services for identified special education students.

School District Overview
Board Approval Date 6-11-03

Educational programs within San Diego County provide numerous opportunities for students who are in need of traditional and/or alternative education programs. Individual school districts offer a broad spectrum of service, and the County Office of Education offers additional options for students. The combination of these services provides a broad continuum of alternatives for expelled students.

A student whose behavior has resulted in expulsion is provided with a rehabilitation plan that is designed by the district of residence. This plan may involve one or more of the options outlined. A student who is simply in need of an educational alternative may also access these programs through a District and/or County referral process.

Education Code 48926

Each county superintendent of schools in counties that operate community schools pursuant to Section 1980, in conjunction with superintendents of the school districts within the county, shall develop a plan for providing education services to all expelled pupils in that county. The plan shall be adopted by the governing board of each school district within the county and by the county board of education.

The plan shall enumerate existing educational alternatives for expelled pupils, identify gaps in educational services to expelled pupils, and strategies for filling those service gaps. The plan shall also identify alternative placements for pupils who are expelled and placed in district community day school programs, but who fail to meet the terms and conditions of their rehabilitation plan or who pose a danger to other district pupils, as determined by the governing board.

Each county superintendent of schools, in conjunction with the superintendents of the school districts, shall submit to the Superintendent of Public Instruction the county plan for providing educational services to all expelled pupils in the county no later than June 30, 1997, and shall submit a triennial update to the plan to the Superintendent of Public Instruction, including the outcome data pursuant to Section 48916.1, on June 30th thereafter.

Education Code 48916.1 (a)

At the time an expulsion of a pupil is ordered, the governing board of the school district shall ensure that an educational program is provided to the pupil who is subject to the expulsion order for the period of the expulsion, but only to the extent funds are appropriated for this purpose in the annual Budget Act or other legislation, or both.

NATIONAL SCHOOL DISTRICT (CONTINUED)
District Existing Educational Alternatives for Expelled Youth

County Office of Education Overview

The San Diego County Office of Education will continue to provide educational options for expelled students. The philosophy of each individual school district affects how the San Diego County Office of Education Community School program will meet the needs of that particular school district. Some school districts use the San Diego programs as an educational option for those students expelled under a district "no-tolerance" policy, while others use this program as a student assistance or placement alternative. The Community School is a permissive educational program that provides the local school districts with another educational option for their expelled youth.

County Existing Educational Alternatives for Expelled Youth

The San Diego County Office of Education Court and Community School/Day Center program offers the following options for expelled youth:

- 1) daily educational programs that meet for 300 minutes per day in community classrooms;
- 2) contracted study programs that require students to complete a minimum of 20 hours of educational product and a minimum of 10 hours of in-class assignments;
- 3) contracted study programs that require students to complete a minimum of 20 hours of educational product.
- 4) Homeless programs
- 5) Teen Parent programs
- 6) Summit Community Schools located in districts throughout the county.

National School District Existing Educational Alternatives for Expelled Youth

The National School District offers the following options for expelled youth, depending on the specific offense and Education Code violation:

- 1) suspended expulsion with placement at the same school;
- 2) suspended expulsion with placement at a different school within the district;
- 3) suspended expulsion with placement in a home instruction program operated by the district;
- 4) expulsion with placement in a home instruction program operated by the district;
- 5) expulsion with referral to the San Diego County Office of Education Community Home Education Program.

Where there are sufficient numbers of expelled K-6 students in an area, a regional county operated Community School may be developed. It would be centrally located, and parents would be required to provide transportation to the program.

Actual referral to such placements will be made by the District Governing Board, with recommendations from the District Administrative Hearing Panel, School Attendance Review Board (SARB), or a similar District referral process.

COUNTY AND DISTRICT GAPS AND STRATEGIES IN EDUCATIONAL SERVICES FOR EXPELLED STUDENTS

The County and the National School District recognize there are major gaps that exist in the provision of educational services to expelled students. Some of these gaps are outlined below, with the strategies developed by the county and local districts to address each gap.

- Gap 1. Students who have failed their placement in district operated programs may be referred to a county operated Community School.
If the student fails that program or commits another expulsion type offense, there may not be any viable alternatives remaining.

County/District strategy for addressing this gap

The San Diego County Office of Education will continue to provide educational services to those eligible students placed or referred to the Community School program. A re-referral may be necessary.

The district will continue to use existing educational strategies and programs to meet the needs of expelled students. The district will not refer students to the county programs unless it has been determined that no local options are appropriate for the student.

- Gap 2. Small school districts within San Diego County generally expel very few students during the course of a school year. So few students are expelled that having a special class or program for such students, located in the district, is not financially or geographically feasible.

County/District strategy for addressing this gap

A regional program may be developed to reflect geographical needs or limited numbers of students.

COUNTY AND DISTRICT ALTERNATIVE PLACEMENTS

The National School District, with the San Diego County Office of Education, will take the following steps for those expelled students who have been placed in a Community Day School but who fail to meet the terms or condition of their rehabilitation plan or who pose a danger to other district pupils.

Step I

The National School District will continue to maintain responsibility for developing a rehabilitation plan for the student, referring the student to an appropriate educational setting, and ensuring that an educational program is provided either within or outside the school district.

Step II

Expelled students who fail to meet the terms and conditions of the district rehabilitation plan may be referred to the San Diego County Office of Education Community School.

For expelled students who are referred to a San Diego County Office of Education Community School, an Individual Learning Plan will be developed with the students' parents and COE staff. Part of this plan will include a goal of returning these students to the National School District after the expulsion term. If students fail to meet their goals in the County operated program, they will be referred back to the district for possible review and placement in an alternative program or re-referral to the County for consideration of another available program.

County and District Gaps and Strategies in Educational Services

The County and the District recognizes there are gaps that exist in respect to providing educational services to all expelled students. They are listed below with strategies designed by County and local staff to address each gap.

- 1. Students who have failed their placement in district operated programs may be referred to a County operated Summit/Community School. If the student fails this program or commits another expulsion type offense, there may not be any viable alternatives available.

County/District strategy to address this gap:

- The San Diego County Office of Education will continue to provide educational services to those eligible students placed or referred to the Summit/Community School Program. A re-referral to the program may be necessary for acceptance.
- The Vista Unified School District will continue to use existing educational programs to meet the needs of its expelled students and utilized due process for each student who commits another expellable offense. This will allow the Administrative Hearing Panel and the Board of Trustees to determine a more appropriate educational placement.
- The County Office of Education and the Vista Unified School District will continue to explore collaborative alternatives to address this gap.

2. The San Diego County operated Summit/Community School Special Day Classes do not have enough available space for expelled special education students who require placement.

County/District strategy to address this gap:

- Expulsion educational services shall be specified by the students' IEP Team. Such services may be provided in a Summit/Community School, in the student's home or in another appropriate setting. The educational services for an expelled student with disabilities shall be individually designed to meet the student's unique needs.
- Vista Unified School District will continue to use existing educational strategies and programs to meet the needs of expelled special education students (i.e. Vista Community Middle/High School).
- The Juvenile Court and Community Schools will collaborate with Vista Unified School District and Special Education Local Plan Area (SELPA) to develop a comprehensive plan for services for identified special education students.
- The County Office of Education and the Vista Unified School District will continue to explore collaborative alternatives to address this gap.

3. Students in grades K-6 who are expelled do not have the same educational options available as do expelled youth who are in grades 7 through 12, due to the limited numbers of students who are expelled in these lower grades. These younger students cannot attend the programs designed for middle and high school students. The numbers are growing, but generally are not enough to develop an elementary school classroom or program.

County/District strategy to address this gap:

- When there is sufficient numbers of expelled K-6 grade students a regional county operated community school may be developed through the San Diego County Office of Education Court and Community School. It would be centrally located and parents would have to provide transportation.
- The Vista Unified School District will continue to offer available options which may include the following:
 - A. Suspended order of expulsion with placement at the same campus;
 - B. Suspended order of expulsion with placement at a different campus within the same district;
 - C. Suspended order of expulsion with placement on a home instruction program operated by the Vista Unified School District;
 - D. Suspended order of expulsion with placement in the North Star Academy.
 - E. Expulsion with referral to the San Diego County Office of Education's community home program;

- The County Office of Education and the Vista Unified School District will continue to explore collaborative alternatives to address this gap.

Identification of alternative placements for students who are expelled and placed in district operated programs but who fail to meet the conditions of their rehabilitation plan or who pose a continuing danger to school safety as determined by the Board of Trustees.

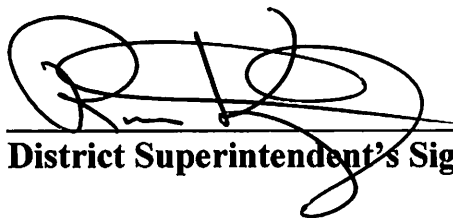

1. Rehabilitation plans are written for each individual student according to Education Code §48916. Students who fail to meet the conditions of their rehabilitation plan may do the following:
 - A. Meet with the Director of Student Support Services, be referred to their school of residence Guidance Team and the Board of Trustees with an educational/rehabilitation completion plan for Board modification and/or approval.
 - B. Remain in existing educational program until rehabilitation plan is completed.
 - C. Be referred to another accredited educational program.
