DISCLAIMER:

The tax laws regarding Federal and State calendar year end reporting requirements are constantly changing and becoming more complex. In areas of uncertainty, we strongly recommend that you contact your district's audit firm and/or attorney for advice and assistance.

These documents are not rendering legal, accounting, tax or other professional services. If legal advice or other assistance is required, an attorney, CPA, or tax advisor should be consulted.

Please note, the ACA Reporting timeline will be listed separately in the ACA Section on our site linked below.

Payroll Services Website

Warrant Cancellations

To enable the County Office to produce accurate W-2's for 2022; all cancellation requests must be received by 12/01/22 by noon. Cancellation requests will not be accepted after NOON, and will require the district to process a Corrected Form W-2 for the employee. Please check your workstations, files, and safes for any salary warrants you are holding for any reason and request the cancellation by the 12/01/22 deadline. This office will do a CANCEL on any warrants held for credentials that have not cleared by the above dates. Also, please check with your Associated Student Body (ASB) organization(s) and accounts payable departments to obtain and report any W-2 wage data for payments that may have been inappropriately paid outside the payroll system (this includes gift certificates presented as awards).

Cancellation requests for 2022 warrants received after December 1st, will not be processed until February 1, 2023 at the earliest, and need to be submitted on the Prior Year Warrant Cancellation Request Form.

Portions of a warrants funds cannot be returned after calendar year end. Please refer to the chart below for district requirements and impact.

Pay Components	Fund Requirements
Net Pay (Warrants/Advice)	Returned by AT
Retirement contributions (employee and employer)	Returned by CalPERS/CalSTRS After adjustment filed by Retirement Reporting
Federal/State Withholding	Not returned – charged to the District with AT Do not adjust Corrected W2 tax withheld amounts (box 2/17)
Social Security/Medicare (employee and employer)	Returned by taxing agency after 941X is filed after the W-2C is submitted.
TSAs	Not returned – charged to the District with AT
Garnishments	Not returned – charged to the District with AT
Vendor payments (H&W and Vol Deds)	Not returned unless requested from the vendor by either the District or Employee
Impact	Requirements
Corrected W2	Needed to correct prior year wages
System Warrant	Not physically cancelled in the system – refer to Corrected W-2

W-4/DE-4 Requirements

The employer should have on file a signed Form W-4 for all newly hired employees on or before the first day of employment. The form is effective with the employee's first pay period. Under IRS Reg. § 31.3402(f)(2)-1(a), if an employee fails to provide a complete Form W-4 on commencement of employment, the employee is considered a single person claiming zero withholding allowances for federal income tax purposes.

The same IRS regulations require employers to remind their employees to file an amended W-4 if their filing status, exemption allowances, or exempt status has changed since the last filing of their W-4. This notice must be given by December 1st of each year.

In addition, an employee may also need to complete the related California Form DE 4, Employee's Withholding Allowance Certificate. Form DE 4 is used in relation to California Personal Income Tax (PIT) withholding. An employee should complete DE 4 if the employee either:

- Claims a different marital status, number of regular allowances, or different additional dollar amount to be withheld for California PIT withholding than the employee claims for federal income tax withholding;
- or
- Claims additional allowances for estimated deductions.

Otherwise, the Federal Form W-4 may be used for both federal and state withholding requirements.

Exemption from Withholding

An employee may claim exempt from withholding if there was no federal income tax liability due in the previous year and expects no liability in the current year. Note the exemption applies only to federal income tax withholding and does not exempt the employee from other employment taxes. A new exempt Form W-4 must be filed each year to continue the exempt status.

Updated regulations have been issued by the IRS, IRB 2007-35, regarding questionable Forms W-4. Under the regulations, the employers are no longer required to submit a copy of each Form W-4 on which an employee claims exemption from withholding while earning $200 or more a week, or claims more than 10 allowances. Employers are now required to submit the Forms W-4 to IRS only if directed to do so in a written notice (Lock-in Letter).

Employees claiming “EXEMPT” from withholding during the prior year on the Form W-4, must complete a new W-4 by February 15th to keep their “EXEMPT” status. If the employee doesn't give you a new Form W-4, withhold tax based on the last valid Form W-4 you have for the employee that doesn't claim exemption from withholding or, if one doesn't exist, as if he or she is single with zero withholding allowances. If the employee furnishes a new Form W-4 claiming exemption from withholding after February 15, you may apply the exemption to future wages, but don't refund taxes withheld while the exempt status wasn't in place.

Employee Information Review

Annually each employer should send out a notification for employees to review their personal information for accuracy with plenty of time for any corrections to be made prior to the last payroll of the year.

Information to Review	Impact	Contact for Corrections
Employee Name (primary = SSN Name)	W2 Filing Error – Individual Tax Return Filing Error	Human Resources
Social Security Number	W2 Filing Error – Individual Tax Return Filing Error	Human Resources – Payroll Services due by 12/01/2022
Birthdate	Some taxable fringe benefits are age based. Having an incorrect birthdate will result in an incorrect imputed income calculation.	Human Resources
Mailing Address	W2 will not be mailed to the correct address in January.	Employee Self Service (ESS) Personal Information
Phone Number	Districts need current contact information to communicate any year- end problems with employees. Especially limited terms that may not have a work number.	Employee Self Service (ESS) Personal Information

Prior Year Duplicate W-2 Requests

For employees requesting duplicate W-2s, use a form similar to the sample provided below. If possible, have the district establish a policy that provides for written requests only – no telephone requests. Remember to type “REISSUED STATEMENT” in the upper right-hand corner of all copies of the duplicate W-2.

The IRS also requires employers to keep all books and records related to W-2 forms for as long as the materials might be required to administer tax laws. The IRS requires employers to keep returned undeliverable copies of W-2 forms sent to employees for four years unless electronic copies are available for review by the IRS. (If the physical copy is not kept, make sure to scan a copy of the postmark and return date of the undeliverable W2.)

The Social Security Administration requires employers to keep copies of W-2 forms for at least four years. The SSA might require copies of your W-2 forms to support your tax and wage reports in the event the agency requires reconciliation to resolve errors and discrepancies.

Advanced Earned Income Credit

As of tax year 2011, there is no longer an advanced payment of the earned income tax credit. Employees still eligible for EIC may still claim it on their individual income tax return, but employers may no longer advance a portion of it with each paycheck. This change is a provision of HR 1586 (Public Law 111-226, Section 219 Elimination of advance refundability of earned income credit).

The employer federal and state notifications for Earned Income Credit is still a requirement. Employers are required to notify all employees that they may be eligible for the Federal EITC (Earned Income Tax Credit). The W-2 produced by the County Office has the required Federal notification to the employees regarding the availability of the EITC. This satisfies the employers' legal Federal notification requirement. However, employers are still legally required by the State to send a separate notice to all their employees.

Personally deliver or mail separate notice. Effective January 1, 2008, an employer must notify ALL employees that they may be eligible for the federal EITC within one week before or after, or at the same time the employer provides an annual wage summary (IRS Forms W-2 or 1099) to any employee. The employer must provide notification by handing directly to the employee or mailing to the employee's last known address either: (1) instructions on how to obtain any notices available from the Internal Revenue Service for this purpose, including IRS Notice 797, or (2) a notice created by the employer, as long as it contains substantially the same language as the sample notice (see below). The employer will NOT satisfy the notification requirement by posting a notice on an employee bulletin board or sending it through office mail.

SAMPLE NOTICE TO EMPLOYEES: The new law contains a sample notice that can be provided to employees. It states:

"Based on your annual earnings, you may be eligible to receive the earned income tax credit from the federal government. The earned income tax credit is a refundable federal income tax credit for low-income working individuals and families. The earned income tax credit has no effect on certain welfare benefits. In most cases, earned income tax credit payments will not be used to determine eligibility for Medicaid, supplemental security income, food stamps, low-income housing or most temporary assistance for needy family's payments. Even if you do not owe federal taxes, you must file a tax return to receive the earned income tax credit. Be sure to fill out the earned income tax credit form in the federal income tax return booklet. For information regarding your eligibility to receive the earned income tax credit, including information on how to obtain the IRS Notice 797 or any other necessary forms and instructions, contact the Internal Revenue Service at 1-800-829-3676 or through its Web site at www.irs.gov."
