

Digital Citizenship: Sample Social Media

For parents

Learn to keep your kid safe online. Click here to find out more about our Digital Citizenship workshops.

What's your kid's digital footprint? Learn more about our Digital Citizenship resources.

It's never too early to model positive digital citizenship for your kids. Learn more here.

Help your middle school student feel empowered to deal with uncomfortable situations online. Join our Digital Citizenship workshop.

What will your high schooler's online footprint tell potential employers and college admissions folks? Learn more.

Help your kid become a lifelong learner by encouraging information literacy. Learn more at our Digital Citizenship workshop.

Encouraging your kid to search smart and avoid misinformation can help them become lifelong learners. Find out more.

Do you really know what's on your kid's cellphone? There are some sneaky apps out there. Learn more at our workshop.

It's important to talk to your kids about cyberbullying. These resources can help:

<https://www.common sense media.org/cyberbullying>

Social media isn't simply a way of life for kids; it is life. Help them avoid digital drama with these resources:

<https://www.common sense media.org/social-media>

It's a complicated world out there in cyberspace. Help your kids stay safe with these handy resources:

<https://www.common sense media.org/privacy-and-internet-safety>

Does your kid seem addicted to technology? There are plenty of great resources available to help:

<https://www.common sense media.org/technology-addiction>

For students

40% of college admissions reps check social media profiles. What will yours tell them? Learn more.

What does your digital footprint say about you? Learn more from our Digital Citizenship resources.

Think before you post! Here are the top 10 things that should cross your mind before you click that button. (Link to Top 10 Things to Think about Before You Post)

Don't get duped! Learn how to tell fact from fiction online. Click here for Digital Citizenship resources.