

Threat Assessment Training

Based on the book

Guidelines for Responding to Student Threats of Violence
By Dewey Cornell & Peter Sheras

Targeted school violence is rarely an unpredictable event. Acts of this type are usually preceded by days or weeks of thought and planning. In most cases, students planning violent acts communicate their intentions to others.

This workshop will review a practical, site-based team approach for conducting thorough, accurate assessments of students' threats of violence. Team member roles, actions steps, documentation and follow-up support will be addressed, and sample district and site protocols will be provided.

Presenter(s): Barbara Higgins, Director
& Jim Crittenden, Project Specialist
