About the Training...

Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 is a federal civil rights law that prohibits discrimination against individuals with disabilities. Its intent is to provide students with disabilities equal access to educational programs, services, and activities. This interactive training will provide participants with policy considerations and best practices in the identification, evaluation, eligibility, review and exit process related to Section 504. Participants will also have the opportunity to practice applying their skills and knowledge in real case scenarios. Sample forms, 504 plans, and letters will be provided in a USB flash drive.

About the Presenters...

Maria Hwang de Bravo and Jennifer Gomeztrejo are co-founders of Student Support Services Solutions, Inc. (S<sub>4</sub>), a consulting firm that focuses training and support in areas under child welfare and attendance/student services. They have gained their experiences and knowledge from having served as high school teachers and administrators at the site, district, and county level. Before S<sub>4</sub>, Maria and Jennifer both worked in the Division of Student Support Services, Los Angeles County Office of Education. To find out more about them and the services and resources available through S<sub>4</sub>, please visit www.s4edconsultants.org.
